

PROUDLY PRESENTS

MISHKAN T'FILAH

World Union
Edition

A new Siddur to succeed the Gates of Prayer

From December we will have a new Siddur! The successor to our current Prayer Book, Gates of Prayer, is called Mishkan T'filah - World Union Edition. It has been substantially adapted and tailored for the needs of our region.

This will be our Siddur through the next generation and we invite your help, participation and support.

Dedicate its pages and perpetuate the names of your loved ones whilst supporting this unique project and the growth of our movement.

Designed and composed for compelling, meaningful and spiritual worship, Mishkan T'filah is set to become the voice of Progressive Judaism for the twenty-first century.

- Services for Shabbat, Festivals, Daily and Home use combining a tradition and creativity.
- A broad and rich selection of readings including beloved passages from Progressive liturgical tradition and great poetic writings from Jewish history.
- Faithfully translated contemporary, gender-inclusive English.
- Fully transliterated.
- Theological and stylistic diversity.
- Innovative design with location indicator and page notes.
- Adapted by the Rabbis of our Regions of the UPJ and SAUPJ
- Project Editor David E.S. Stein (URJ: The Torah: A Modern Commentary, revised, & WRJ: Torah Commentary).
